Many Paths One Destination

Celebrating recovery, spirituality & fellowship

This event is

FREE

but the
Spaghetti Lunch Feast is $5 (still pretty cheap)

LOU P. recently celebrated over 40 years of recovery. He avidly reads recovery literature and passionately shares his knowledge and experience with others. He has freely distributed hundreds of books to those in recovery who cross his path.

JERRY WILLIAMS, MAC, CCS, brings with him over 35 years of experience in the recovery field. He's a Certified Clinical Supervisor through CADAC. He has worked for CRC and started the clinical program at The Camp in Scotts Valley. He's a published author and contributor to recovery newsletters. Today Jerry is a popular and effective interventionist..

CHARLENE SHAUGHNESSY, who was at onetime a homeless, unemployable parolee, has made it her ambitious mission to bring the message of hope and share her experience in penitentiaries and treatment facilities nationwide. Her previous "sales & distribution" lifestyle has allowed her to achieve a successful career as a Sales Manager in the hospitality industry.

ROLAND WILLIAMS, MA, NCACII, CADCI, ACRPS, SAP is the co-founder and Executive Director of Sausalito based Alta Mira Recovery Programs, which he designed. Roland has over 25 years of substance abuse and behavioral health treatment experience. Roland specializes in working with impaired professionals, and he currently runs Relapse Prevention groups for physicians, attorneys, and high achieving business people in the San Francisco Bay Area. Roland has published numerous recovery books and articles and taught recovery classes at universities throughout the U.S. He is a frequent speaker at recovery and treatment seminars and events.

FERNANDO MALLORY, MSW, is a Professor of Addiction Studies in Southern California and a Board Member of the California Association of Alcohol/Drug Educators. Born and raised in China, fluent in Chinese, he brings a unique interpretation and understanding of 12-step spiritual principles that's beyond simple East meets West. He is a national motivational speaker, a columnist for the "Homeless Gazette" in Laguna Beach and a professional photographer in Orange County.

PAUL WILLIAMS is an Oscar, Grammy and Golden Globe winning Hall of Fame songwriter. As a part of America's large recovering community, Paul is also very active on the speakers circuit. Sharing stories of his own escape from addiction, he quips, "You know you're an alcoholic when you misplace a decade." Sober for over 20 years, his humorous observations of life, love, and creativity are augmented by the education and knowledge he gained through his studies he has become a volunteer and a very credible advocate of recovery.
